R.C.& D. Partnering for Sustainability

Partnership Benefits:

The Ohio Association of R.C.& D. is looking for energetic partners to sustain our efforts in making this event successful. This three day event has had a long history of bringing North Central Resource Conservation and Development Professionals and their families together to network and learn from each other through training, presentations and educational tours. Please join us as we renew our faith in our ability to adapt and survive future challenges facing R.C.& D. areas in the North Central Region.
